

GLOBAL PRAYER MATTERS

(Edition PM18.07a Wednesday 14 February 2018)

You get 2 PMs this week because some items just can't wait till next week!

Trevor and Manoli Allan (Spain, DPG Day 15)

Pray for the first team of young people that is arriving soon to spend three weeks with Trevor and Manoli. The team includes people from Germany, Switzerland, Canada, Argentina and Chile. They will be involved in all of the activities of the two churches, as well as helping with the social work and also evangelising on the streets and in the market places. Trevor and Manoli will be running several outreach events and a small mission conference with the help of the short-termers. Pray God will work in their lives as well as those they meet and evangelise. Pray that God will break down all barriers to the spread of His gospel.

John and Sharon Thomson (Specialists, DPG Day 22)

Pray that John's recent dental treatment will be successful and leave him trouble-free for a long time. Pray for Sharon as she gives a talk to ladies at their local church on Saturday. Pray that she will know what God wants her to say, and that the message will bless those who attend. Pray for John and Sharon as they decide on the replacement of their air-con unit and the installation of solar panels.

Simon and Anni (Restricted Access, DPG Day 25)

Pray that Simon will be able to use the feedback he received recently to publish his commentaries.

David and Stacie Coates (new – Restricted Access)

David is Principal of Promise An International School. One of the key teachers at PAIS, a Filipino lady who teaches Science and English to Cambridge IGCSE level, is expecting and, with miscarriage threatening and other complications, has been ordered to cease work indefinitely and immediately. She will return to her homeland as soon as she is well enough, while her husband, the School Operations Manager, will stay on. PAIS urgently need a replacement teacher who can cover the lady's classes until the end of June.

SPECIAL REQUEST TO READERS: Can all GPM recipients please check that you have info@amtglobal.com.au marked as a 'safe sender' in your email program, especially if you haven't been getting GPM in recent weeks. For example, in MS Outlook you can go to Tools > Options... > Preferences > Junk E-mail... (or a similar sequence, depending on your version) and enter my email address under the Safe Senders tab. With Telstra Webmail go to Settings > Mail > Safe senders. I don't know what the procedure is for Optusnet users, but since you can't turn off your spam blocker I would really appreciate you 'whitelisting' the address ASAP! With Gmail go to Settings > Filters and Blocked Addresses, and unblock it there. Alternatively, e.g. in Yahoo Mail, go to your spam folder, find GPM and click 'Not spam' at the top.

Apologies to those who have received April mags with missing pages — please continue to let me know so that I can (1) send you a replacement mag and (2) get a tally for the printer, so they can know the extent of the problem.
