

GLOBAL PRAYER MATTERS

(Edition PM18.18 Tuesday 1 May 2018)

Byron and Lyn Johannesen (Colombia, DPG Day 4)

Pray for the quick resolution (or at least a diagnosis) of a 'flashing light' in the right visual field of Byron's right eye. An ophthalmologist didn't find anything to explain the visual disturbance.

Fiona Thomas (Cambodia, DPG Day 7)

Praise God for the successful renewal of her visa.

Noela Elvery (Specialist, DPG Day 20) &

Julie Loudon (Specialist, DPG Day 21)

News from their friends in NE DR Congo is disturbing as the three main roads out of this area have suffered attacks with multiple deaths, lorries burnt by rebels and a bus taken by a rebel group. The area is very unstable yet again. Please pray for safety of children, teachers and medical staff, and wisdom and peace for Acira and others as they cope in these very difficult circumstances.

Wendy Strachan (Specialist, DPG Day 22)

Pray for Wendy as she travels this Friday to Ireland for SU meetings, then represents SU at the Global Children's Forum in Budapest.

David and Stacie (Restricted Access, DPG Day 23)

The Promise Schools in Myanmar urgently need suitably qualified Christian teachers — especially 'western-trained' and experienced, for positions in the primary years and for specialist subjects in secondary years. Short-term or longer-term commitments are welcome.

Luke and Dania (Preparing for Restricted Access, DPG Day 28)

Pray for Luke and Dania to travel safely to their field of service today. Pray for them to stay healthy, adjust quickly, and find a suitable apartment.
