(Edition PM2440 1st Oct 2024)

Prayer Matters is published by Fiona Emery membercare@amtglobal.com.au every Tuesday. Please direct all prayer requests to her by noon on Monday.

Herman & Belinda Lamprecht, (South Africa, DPG Day 1)

Only a few short days before we head to Australia on home assignment. Please pray for us, as we spend these last days before leaving tying up as many little "loose ends" as we possibly can - and that we would remain peaceful and patient and trusting while we are at it. Pray for safe travels.

Liz Pfeifer, (Thailand, DPG Day 8)

I've completed the Beginning Thai, Basic Thai - Reading & Writing, and Intermediate Thai books, so I'm taking a break from language learning. I am now just over half-way through my Information Technology Bachelor's degree. My current subject is Internet Client Engineering, so I'm enjoying learning about website development. This subject includes some Live Discussion sessions, so that interaction is helpful in the midst of online study. Please pray for diligence and concentration.

Farid & Parila Qurbanpur, (Australia, DPG Day 14)

Thank you for praying for the weekend retreat, attended by many Afghans, not many believers. It was a blessed time and everything went smoothly as I've heard from everyone (ladies) most of them were saying it was really good and challenging that they want to search about the truth ,a lady said it was good Farid shared honestly about his life... and another young lady said it was like a spark. Farid and I had the opportunity to answer their many questions but went in a very respectful manner as well as they were listening carefully. Praise our Lord.

Daniel & Candide Weekes, (France, DPG Day 17)

Praise God for the families and helpers who attended our summer camps over summer. -> Praise God for the people and teams who come to help us for construction. -> Pray for safety and that great work will be accomplished, so that the people come here will have a comfortable time and be able to spend time with Jesus! -> Praise God that our family is well. Pray that we would be good parents to Jack and Henry and that they would grow in their faith at home and in school. Most people they interact with (friends, neighbours, teachers etc.) do not believe in Jesus. -> Pray for all the logistics of furlough preparation next year (dates, cost of flights, travels plans etc.).

Ian & Leann Buckley, (Specialist, DPG Day 22)

URGENT PRAYER There has been severe flooding both in Kathmandu and the Sindhupalchok district where we work in different villages and churches. We have heard that houses and a church have been flooded. Please be praying for all those affected and the relief that will be needed. Praise the Lord for the great opportunity given to Kumar to speak at a youth conference out west with up to 200 young people attending. Please keep praying for our flight costs to be met.

Les & Kay Loader, (Specialist, DPG Day 25)

Les will be travelling to Lae in Papua New Guinea on Monday Oct 7th where he will be assisting Christian Books Melanesia with a major building project as they prepare to move their office to Lae. An eleven-man work party from Australia will be joining Les to knock over the structural work renovating a warehouse. After knee replacement Kay is back in action with her 5 Religious instruction classes in 2 State schools. We thank the Lord for this open door.

Karl & Elaine Mosby, (Australia, New to DPG)

We are grateful for the global contacts that the Lord has provided us, enabling the translation of GoodSeed resources into many languages. We ask for safety for the translators working in countries hostile to the Gospel. One of our resources, The Captive, is a sequel to our evangelism books, and we are supervising its translation into Portuguese, Mandarin Chinese, and Farsi (Persian). Please pray for accurate translation and distribution. We would also ask you to pray for opportunities here in Australia to expose folks to the GoodSeed resources for both evangelism and discipleship within the context of local churches.

David & Ros, (Restricted Access, DPG Day 29)

As our departure date for NZ is fast approaching (November 5th), over the weeks ahead our desire is to finish our time in Australia well. Please pray that the Turkish fellowship in Auburn will carry on after we leave. David has accepted an invitation to serve as the Interim-Pastor of the Baptist church in his hometown, Stratford, New Zealand, Ros will continue to serve with the Turkish ministry as a part of the Power to Change Human Resources & Member Care team. We would appreciate your prayers not just for us but for Nathan in this transition to NZ, specifically for God's provision of good community and work.

Robert & Denise, (Restricted Access, DPG Day 30)

Rob, Denny and Mark (Partners in the Business) are running a training on the fabrication of cement fence posts for like-minded people from the south (some of these were imprisoned this time last year). This will be held from the 7th to 11th October. The goal is not only to teach a skill that these folk can then duplicate and have a means of income for themselves but also to have time of mentoring and encouragement during this week. Please be praying for a rich time of fellowship through mentoring and discussion; - good attitudes to learn a new skill and to do it well; safety throughout this week.
