

GLOBAL PRAYER MATTERS

(Edition PM2532 12 Aug 2025)

Prayer Matters is published by Fiona Emery fionae@servingtogether.com.au every Tuesday. Please direct all prayer requests to her by noon on Monday.

Abbey (Restricted Access, DPG Day 1)

This week I'm continuing language lessons online and am hoping to find a tutor I can meet with to go through the course content and practice intentionally with. Please pray for me as I begin establishing my routines. I want to use my time well and also leave enough space for spontaneity. Please also pray for continued good health- I've heard dengue is around in my neighbourhood, and I've been bitten by a lot of mosquitos, even though I wear insect repellent! Prayer for good energy as I meet lots of people and keep learning how to live here would also be appreciated.

Scott & Ruth Brown, (Specialist, DPG Day 2)

August will be a busy season, so please pray for good health and stamina to do ministry well. Pray for the new OMF International YouTube @BytesOfAsia channel launching on August 17. For wisdom and open doors to connect with Cambodia churches via social media.

Lorraine & Stephen Cavill, (Australia: R&R, DPG Day 4)

After all Stephen's health dramas at the start of the year, he was pleased to finally receive his flying medical for 2 years, although he has to give sleep apnoea results to CASA in January again. Stephen has taken the Cessna up for a fly since we have been back and given the Jabiru a run, but he can't fly that until he has done the Annual service. This week we head across to the coast where we have some church visits planned, and Stephen will take the studies for a church camp at the start of September.

Paul & Leah Davies, (Ireland (enroute), DPG Day 6)

Praise God we are very close to sending our visa applications - a process we have been in for months. Please pray that the last few letters and documents required might arrive quickly. Please pray that God would be preparing hearts in Ireland to hear the good news and consider Jesus afresh.

Jared & Megan Emery, (Albania (enroute), DPG Day 7)

Over the past few months, we have spoken at a number of churches, travelling around Tassie and interstate to SA and have been encouraged that God's church and God's people remain interested, stirred and desiring to be part of God's mission in sharing His love to all nations. We're currently at 24% of our ongoing cost of living needs, and every bit of support brings us closer to getting the all clear to book our plane tickets and go! As we wait, please pray for our preparation including renewing passports and signing up to an Albanian language learning site.

Georgie, (Taiwan, DPG Day 9)

Be praying for Georgie as she spends her last few weeks in Australia with family. Pray for good times with her siblings. Pray for safe travel back to T and for her as she settles back into ministry.

Elise Long, (Philippines, DPG Day 15)

I'm writing to you from Australia, where I'm waiting to have an operation on my wrist, which I broke after tripping on a root at the side of the road when out running in Puerto Princesa. I'm scheduled to share for messages on Ephesians 6 at the Refresh women's convention in Victoria from the 15th to the 17th of August. Would you please pray with me that the operation can be scheduled and completed in time for me to fulfil this commitment. Meanwhile, in the Philippines, please continue to uphold the teachers and shepherds, and the whole fellowship at Menti.

Jon & Janet Mitchell, (PNG, DPG Day 17)

Our time in Australia - Please pray that all the medical appointments would go smoothly. Please pray for the Bible and Literacy Teachers while we are away - that they will continue to hear the Holy Spirit's prompting when teaching and working with their brothers and sisters here in Mete Kavi. The church, as a whole, while we are away, is vulnerable to many outside influences that can deceive and disturb. Please pray for wisdom & discernment, and for the believers to be protected from distractions and stirring from unbelievers in the area. Please pray for the churches on New Ireland, each of them are at various levels of growth & spiritual maturity.

Claire Morris, (Spain, DPG Day 18)

I'm thankful for God's sustaining grace through these first six months, and I'd really value your prayers for a good balance of study, socialising, and siestas in August - and above all, that I'd keep seeking Jesus for the deep refreshment only he can bring. In the past month I have travelled to regional areas and spent time in the only evangelical church in an area of 38,000 people. My ongoing prayer is that God would raise up and send out his people to be lights in these towns and villages—and that he would guide me, too, in the years ahead. Please pray that I'd continue to learn language with a disciplined yet light-hearted spirit - willing to try, and fail, and try again!

Karl & Elaine Mosby, (QLD, DPG Day 18)

Work at Good Seed involves translating materials into many languages. Please pray for the checking process of the Portuguese Captive. The progress of the translation of No Ordinary Book into Farsi. The formatting of Mandarin Captive for checking and the Ukraine version of The Stranger and determining its accuracy. Pray all of these materials will aid in growth of individual and the Church. Pray for health and strength for us both and good life balance amidst the busyness of life and ministry.

Nara, (Restricted Access, DPG Day 19)

Pray that God to help me meet my KPIs. I would be more kind and patient at work esp, towards my boss and speak with wisdom. Pray for trust and support from my boss and management. Pray that I manage things well so I can come home for Christmas. I would have connections with all stakeholders in the business and that those I engage with would have open hearts to receive Him.

Larelle Smith, (Hong Kong, DPG Day 24)

This week we have 64 kids at DREAM camp, working with like minded NGOs and Noah's Ark Theme park in Hong Kong. DREAM stands for Drama Reading English Arts Music. All the kids that are on camp are in underprivileged/undesirable situations and have come to learn English using creative arts. Today we shared the gospel with them all and we had 25 salvations! This camp focuses on teaching English as a tool, but our ultimate goal is to share who Jesus is and build them up in confidence and Godly character!

Walter & Gabrielle Wetzel, (AMT Australia, DPG Day 28)

Pray for Walter and Mitch Terblanche as they attend the Pan African Conference in Harare, Zimbabwe.
